Crochet Elf Hat Pattern

A long, pointed crochet elf hat with a folded cuff and a soft pom-pom at the tip.

Updated 2026 · US terms · 45 min read

This hat is worked the same way as our Santa hat pattern — a magic-ring crown, straight rounds, and a shaped point — but in green with a folded cream cuff, giving it that classic elf look.

What you need

- Worsted weight (#4) yarn: green (main) and cream (cuff and pom-pom)
- 5.0mm (US H/8) hook
- Stitch marker
- Pom-pom maker or cardboard
- Yarn needle

Crown

Steps

1. Magic ring, 6 sc. (6 sts)

2. Increase 6 sts every round for 7–8 rounds (adult) or 5–6 rounds (child), until the circle matches the head circumference.

Body and point

Steps

1. Work straight rounds of sc or hdc until the hat measures 9–10 inches (adult) or 6 inches (child) from the crown.
2. Shape the point by decreasing along roughly a third of the round at one side for several rounds in a row, the same way as the Santa hat, until the tip is long and curled rather than straight up.

Cuff and pom-pom

Steps

1. Join cream yarn at the bottom edge and work 4–5 rounds of hdc in the back loop for a ribbed cuff.
2. Fold the cuff up to the outside.
3. Attach a small pom-pom to the tip of the point.

Frequently asked questions

How is this different from the Santa hat pattern?

The shaping method is identical; only the color placement and point length differ — the elf hat point is usually made a bit longer and more curled.

Can I add jingle bells?

Yes — stitch a small jingle bell to the tip alongside or instead of the pom-pom for extra holiday character.

What size fits most adults?

A crown circle of about 42–46 stitches in worsted weight with a 5.0mm hook fits most average adult heads; try the crown on before continuing if you can.
